FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2007 Hall of Fame Awards will honor
Tom Schriber and Donahue Schriber March 30

COSTA MESA, CA, March 7, 2007 – The Costa Mesa Chamber of Commerce and South Coast Metro Alliance will recognize Tom Schriber, chairman of the board, and the Donahue Schriber Realty Group for outstanding corporate leadership and community outreach at the Annual Hall of Fame Awards set for Friday, March 30 at Hilton Orange County/Costa Mesa.

Throughout its 38-year history, the $1.8 billion company Schriber formed with late partner Daniel W. Donahue has been credited with developing some of the most recognizable and successful shopping centers throughout California, Arizona and Nevada.

Schriber and his company are deeply involved in bettering the community through establishment of the Donahue Center, which houses KidWorks, an after-school program for at-risk children in Santa Ana, as well as supporting the United Way's "Keeping Kids on Track" program which is committed to keeping kids in school and encouraging collage as an option through increasing academic performance and self esteem. The company also supports Guardian Scholars program at Cal State Fullerton, which is committed to supporting college-bound students exiting the foster care system and supports many other worthy organizations.

"We are delighted to recognize Tom Schriber and Costa Mesa-based Donahue Schriber Realty Group for having unselfishly used their expertise and success to help others and to set an example for all of us to follow," said Diane Pritchett, executive director, South Coast Metro Alliance.

"I am proud that Costa Mesa and South Coast Metro are home to extraordinary individuals and organizations like Tom Schriber and the Donahue Schriber Realty Group," said Costa Mesa Chamber of Commerce President/CEO Ed Fawcett.

Contact the Costa Mesa Chamber of Commerce at 714.885.9090 or South Coast Metro Alliance at 714.435.2109 for more information and to purchase tickets.
